Turbulent 1930's Come to Life in Fine Commentary

By EMERSON PRICE

Most Secret Agency

Allen Dulles, as head of the Central Intelligence Agency, has a large part of Andrew Tully's comprehensive report on the activities of the operations of the most secret of government organizations. The book is titled CIA: THE INSIDE STORY (Morrow, $4.50). This vastly interesting work also covers the wide range of the agency's activities—Suez, Formosa, Poland, West Berlin and elsewhere over the earth—failures and successes are quality noted.
